

VIDEOPOLIS 2012

Submission Form

Please print this form and either type or print legibly. This form must be received by March 16th, 2012 in order for your performance or installation to be considered for Videopolis 2012. In addition to this form, we ask that you include a brief explanation of what you are trying to do. It doesn't have to be too long, just a paragraph or two ought to do, but if you feel the need to elaborate more we will gladly read it all. If you have any online materials (video / audio / stills) that would help us understand please direct us to it. If you have materials (video / audio / etc.) that you would like to send us that is good as well. Expect us to ask more questions if we like your ideas.
